

ICAR-NRC for Orchids organised Campaign on the theme “Agriculture and Environment: the Citizen Face”

In the series of events under “Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav”, ICAR-NRC for Orchids organized a Campaign on the theme “Agriculture and Environment: the Citizen Face” on 26.11.2021 at Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya, Pakyong, East Sikkim. Thirteen staffs of Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya, four staffs of ICAR-NRC for Orchids were present there in the program. Dr. Ram Pal, Director (Acting) ICAR-NRC for Orchids and Manoj Kumar Singh, Principal, Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya was also present in the program. Dr. Siddhartha Sanakr Biswas, Scientist, ICAR-NRC for Orchids, delivered a lecture for Orientation of school children towards opportunities in agriculture sector for entrepreneurship and employment. Quiz competition and drawing completion on Indian Agriculture was organised among the 10th and 12th class students of Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya. Total 118 students had participated in quiz as well as drawing completion. Appreciation certificates as well as awards were also distributed for both the completions among the students. Finally the program was concluded with formal vote of thanks by Dr. Siddhartha Sanakr Biswas, Nodal officer for celebrating “Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav” at ICAR-NRC for Orchids.

