

ICAR-NRC for Orchids observes Cyber Jaagrookta Divas

SE Report

GANGTOK, October 10: The scientists, and administrative, accounts, technical and farm staff of ICAR NRCO attended an interactive cyber awareness programme held at the centre.

Pritam Shah (YP II Computer) delivered an awareness lecture on various topics of cyber security measures which include Wi-Fi security, desktop security, fake news, fake jobs fake emails some social networking activities, gadget addiction, informs a press release

Some real-life examples were also presented on how attackers can steal the personal information. Some queries were also taken care and cleared in the awareness programme. Some life experiences were shared by the staffs. Women/child tariffing and online banking phishing crime were discussed. National Cyber Crime Portal was explored for complain and awareness related information.

Director Dr. Ram Pal shared some experiences related to cybercrime and requested to aware as much as possible and not to share much information in social networking sites. He also asked to hold awareness programme every month's first Wednesday.
